Folks,

At Wednesday's Future In-Space Operations (FISO) telecon colloquium, we are pleased to host Dallas Bienhoff (Boeing) at 3pm ET.

He will speak on "A Reusable Cislunar Transportation Architecture and Top 10 Technologies."

Dallas's presentation charts will be posted by noon at <http://spirit.as.utexas.edu/~fiso/teleconarchive.htm> , which also includes links to past FISO presentations.

Have a good week,

Harley
